CONDITIONS OF SALE.

Please Read Sale Terms Before Bidding.

This is a bona-fide public sale, for prompt cash settlement, and irresponsible persons who are not sure whether they can pay for what they bid on, are asked not to bid. The cataloguer has taken special pains to describe each lot accurately. Errors will be corrected, but he reserves the sole right to decide upon any claims. No corrections or refunds will be made, and no lots can be returned, unless the bidder submits his case in writing within 30 days of the date of the sale.

Coins and medals are sold at so much per PIECE, and no lot will be separated. You cannot buy a few pieces out of a lot but must buy all of it. The auctioneer will accept no bid under 10 cents to start a lot where that lot contains only one piece; nor will he accept any advance under 5c on any lot containing but one piece; after the price has reached $2. no advance under 10c will be accepted on any lot containing one piece; after $5.00 the bid must advance 25c each time; after $10 no bid under 50c.

Our rules regarding lots containing more than one piece will remain unchanged and the same as before.

Auction sales are strictly for cash. Parties unknown to me and bidding for the first time, must give bank or other reliable reference, or their bids will not be executed.

Forward your bids as early as possible, as thousands of bids have to be entered. Do not make ridiculously low bids, such as 10c. and 15c. on foreign silver coins worth several times over as bullion. Write your bids plainly, with a pen if practicable.

Where the number of pieces in a lot is not given after the description, there is but one piece in the lot.

Be sure you bid on the lot you wish to buy.

All coins, etc., are genuine unless otherwise described.

A charge of 5% will be made to cover packing but where the parcel is bulky an additional packing charge will be made. No charge made for bidding except for lots actually purchased. Remit by money order or New York draft.

If any further information is required as to valuation of lots, or how to bid, please write the cataloguer, THOMAS L. ELDER.

Important Notice. We keep two books of the sale recording each lot as sold, and we will not accept any sale records from outsiders. Our records are final.

No priced catalogue will be furnished of this sale.

THE LIBERTY HEAD QUARTER EAGLE.

A few Points About the Recent Type and Cause of The Present Demand.

The coin about which I am writing is the one with the head of Liberty adopted in the year 1840 and discontinued in 1907, and about which charges of "manipulation" have been made: To be fair to the coin let it first be stated that there are quite a few really rare dates and rare mint marks of this type of issue. These rare dates and rare mints have always enjoyed a deserved popularity among American collectors and will legitimately and properly continue to be collected and esteemed here. So that the statement of "manipulation" needs an explanation. The coin itself is of conventional type with a characterless head of Liberty and a commonplace design of the eagle on its reverse. Up until as recently as 1925 the ordinary dates, that is the kind which had up to that time been turned in at the banks regularly, got very little notice from the collectors of American coins. Who does not remember the enterprising dealer in coins and pearls who paid us periodical visits, and who on taking fat wallets out of overcoat pockets would unroll before us anywhere from 300 to 1,000 quarter eagles, of this very type, which he offered to us for $2.75 each. That gentleman little foresaw the enterprise which would in a year or so develop in efforts to secure those very identical $2.75 coins, with a premium face now of anywhere from $1. to $1.25, and even more. Recently an eastern dealer honored us with a brief visit. He carried an immense bag and his first question was "Have you any quarter eagles?" He offered a price equal to the best. Said he "I have five hundred in this bag." From this one may gather that this quarter eagle is not being collected because of rarity, but rather because of a certain demand. About a dozen letters we sent out as a feeler to certain banks made us aware of the fact that the banks throughout the country are "wise" as to these quarter eagles and the demand, and while we offered as good a price as any the canny banks refused to sell, which clearly showed that one or more of our enterprising new dealers has been circularizing the banks of the country. Our letters also showed that a good many banks have quarter eagles on hand, another proof of their commonness. Now the writer happens to know just about as much about the cause of this demand as anybody, and it is not through any demand on the part of the American collectors of coins. The American dealers in coins are simply trying to get as many quarter eagles as they can to sell to one or two persons in New York City, who deal in foreign exchange, and the writer does not believe the private collector or the American dealer is doing any manipulating unless buying these coins and selling them to a foreign exchange dealer in New York is manipulation. The foreign exchange dealer probably pays the dealers within fifteen cents of what he ultimately gets for the coin. Well, here is the most interesting fact of all—the coins are going to the orient—to Japan and China. The next question you will ask is, "What are the orientals doing with the coins?" If you wish to have proof of my answer go some day to Chinatown in New York or elsewhere and look into the windows of the Chinese jeweler, the dealer in jades, cigarette holders, gold objects and opals and you will see many United States gold coins skilfully mounted for watch-fobs, watch-charms, cuff buttons and even shirt studs. There is the answer. My humble opinion is that most of these quarter eagles go to adorn oriental wristbands in the way of cuff-links. They are of a suitable size for cuff-buttons and Japanese and Chinese, especially the Chinese, seem passionately fond of gold coin ornaments. Even their cash coins are imitated in gold for jewelry ornaments and bangles. We do not know enough of psychology of the oriental mind to say that they are exactly faddists, but we know they are subtle imitators. They can imitate to perfection anything from a gold watch to a suit of prince Albert clothes. We don't know to what extent the Chinese are slaves of style, but if styles change often over there in dress, why we would utter a word of caution to those gentlemen who are so keen on hunting up quarter eagles at $3.75 per coin, as a change of fad in Chinese cuff links might leave a few speculators high and dry with a bag full of quarter eagles which the American coin collector would not find attractive at the price paid out. Judging from the present prospects the demand seems limitless. For the sake of a few enterprising dealers it should be hoped that a new earthquake or a political convulsion in China may not end the fad.

DESIRABLE RELICS, CURIOS & GEMS.

In this catalogue will be found, in several sections a variety of Stone-Age Relics, Minerals, Egyptian and other Relics, as well as some Modern Gems. If you are at all interested in these bona fide antiques, make us some bids as good bargains in them are often to be had in these sales. Don't overlook them.

WONDERFUL ENGLISH COIN COLLECTION—LARGE CENT COLLECTIONS, ETC.

This present sale includes the best collection of English Gold, Silver and Copper coins we have offered since the celebrated Miller Sale in 1920. Its offering in the coins of the Edwards and Henrys Elizabeth, Charles I surpass the Miller offerings in these issues, and ought to attract wide attention.

The Two Cent collections are unusual, combining about Five hundred lots of Cents and half Cents. The offerings of Colonial and Continental Coins, Hard Times tokens, U. S. Fractional Currency, Etc. are unusual and important.

This Sale Contains Important Gold Coins.

Bechtler, Clark, Gruber & Co., Wass Moliter, Mormon and other Private Gold Coins should attract attention, as rarities are offered. The United States Series contains very important Half and Quarter Eagle Coins, with several great rarities. Don't miss them.

Nailing An Old Story.

An important collector who happened in to see us the other day, while commenting on the death of Mr. Albert R. Frey, quite shocked Mr. Elder by saying, "Now what will you do about cataloguing foreign coins since Mr. Frey has died." Our reply was that Mr. Frey had on only one occasion in the last twenty years catalogued forty or fifty gold coins for us while we were rushed. Mr. Elder does all of the cataloguing for the Elder Coin & Curio Corporation. He has no partners, outside stockholders, backers or helpers of any kind, rumors to the contrary.

Mr. Elder himself made the Appleton, the Miller, the Skilton and this present catalogue. Not a word of notes of any kind came with the Skilton collection, as the coins were all dumped together in a solid mass when delivered, while the present Ward Collection had not a note with it. All the references in the Skilton and this present sale were looked up by Mr. Elder and by nobody else. He has no alibi and doesn't need one and can make his own catalogues notwithstanding the comments favorable or otherwise which occasionally reach our ears. He stands on the record of the Miller, Skilton and the Ward catalogues, not to mention the Gschwend, Wilson, Mougey, Woodin and Gehring Catalogues, all of them of first importance.

On Careless Entering of Bids, and Other Matters Affecting Bidding At Auction.

At every sale we hold—and at our last sale—there were several collectors who bid in error on certain lots and grumbled about taking those lots and paying for them. This was entirely unfair on their part. Remember, we have nothing to go by but the lots and prices indicated on your bid sheets. We cannot read minds. When you obtain a lot on which you bid in error remember that unless the lot is accepted and paid for the owner loses the sale of that lot, while had the error not been made it would have gone to another collector who would have been glad to get it. All must assume responsibility for their bids without question. A few have a habit of writing figures which are well nigh indecipherable, hen-scratches in fact and we had to discontinue the bids of one insistent collector who writes a hand which would have puzzled the Egyptians and who sent us a bid in error on a lot which the bid sheet clearly indicated but which the sender refused to admit. He is cut off the list because of his unfairness. Please see to it that there is no question on first glance as to the lot you intend to bid on when we examine your bid sheet. It is the only safe way. Every collector should after making out his bids recheck them to correct any possible errors. Most people make errors occasionally. I have myself made them in sending bids to other sales. Collectors are willing usually to take an oath they did not bid on a certain lot, until we submit the proof of their own bid sheets, when of course they back down. Another important matter is that sometimes the new bidder who bids for the first time becomes indignant because we ask him for reference. We have never heard of him before yet he expects us to take a chance on him, something that no bank or business house would do as regards a stranger. Also we don't regard membership in Clubs or Societies as conclusive evidence of good faith. We don't say it is evidence not find that societies as a rule are very partial towards numismatic dealers in the adjustment of complaints. They are not going to help dealers collect any bills of delinquent members. They have put this on record more than once after a complaint was made, and their usual decision is to have nothing to do with the matter. We are glad to see certain coin dealers on the committees of societies nowadays, as it bespeaks a more liberal attitude towards the dealers side of the question. Holding auction sales of coins is one of the most trying and difficult experiences imaginable. There is a perfectly endless amount of detail and worry connected with it in serving several hundred bidders, in trying to please all of them and at the same time to do justice to the owner of the lots offered. There is not much money in it nowadays, with advanced costs for everything, so the cataloguer needs all the cooperation he can get to meet the situation. New bidders should read the sale terms. Business men never enter a contract or sign one without reading its terms. Bidding at auction means entering a contract. A few bidders don't appreciate the fact and we are sorry to add we don't believe they want to appreciate it. Errors will be adjusted by the cataloguer, but collectors who insist on returning lots from every sale will be cut off our list for good and all. You never attended any kind of an auction sale where lots may be returned at will. To a few "collectors" a coin auction is simply not an auction but a school-boy affair it would seem. We recently had a man out in Oregon pick out one coin from a lot, pay for the coin and return the rest. He is a society member too—of course he ignored all printed rules. If you enjoy bidding at coin sales and want these sales to continue please help us to reduce our crop of worries and puzzling questions which arise at each sale.

Don't Forget Change in Bidding.

No lot containing a single piece will be started under 10 cents.

No advance under 5 cents will be accepted on any lot containing one piece. This means bids like 11c and 16c on single items won't be available.

After $2 has been reached in the bidding the advance must be 10 cents. After $5, the advance will be 25 cents.

On lots containing more than one piece our old method still continues. These new methods worked out very nicely at our last sale and through lack of the usual one-cent bid competition on single items our sale sessions were cut down about an hour in length in each instance and nobody came out a loser. If you lose on one lot you make it up on the other fellow on the next.

OUR LAST SALE OF THIS PRESENT SEASON TO BE HELD IN JUNE.

Our next sale will be our last until next October or November. Owing to loss of our old help we have been forced to hold only four sales per year, and eventually our sales may be limited to only three per year, to be held in November, February and May. Our present sale, with the Ward and other collections, is so big that we had to postpone part of the Havemyer Collection, the Serviss Collection of Paper Money, and an important Montpelier Vermont Collection of U. S. Cents and Hard Times Tokens. These important offerings and others will go into our June Sale. If you have anything to consign for that sale please get it to us without delay as we are already working on our June sale, in fact it is well advanced. In extent it will be at least a three-day affair.

Excerpt From a Recent Letter Received by Mr. Elder.

The original is on file in this office and the address and name of the writer of this wholly unsolicited reference, can be given to authorized persons. It is to be hoped that any persons who may be for any reason dissatisfied with their treatment will kindly take note: This is only one of hundreds of such letters that we have here but which we have not space to print. This catalogue would not hold the letters of this tenor which we have received in recent years.

“————— Montana, February 27th, 1926.

The Elder Coin & Curio Corporation,
No. 9 East 35th Street, New York City.

Dear Mr. Elder,

I have received the coins on my last order from you. I wish to express my entire satisfaction with the way you have dealt with me in our various transactions recently, and the uniformly generous manner you have filled the orders for coins and old money. In addition to the fact that your prices are very moderate in comparison with others, the premium you have added is much better than others offer in their regular lists. I wish especially to mention your valuable ELDER RARE COIN BOOK, lately sent me as a premium for an order amounting to more than five dollars. I have several so-called Rare Coin Encyclopaedias, but as soon as I got yours I quickly recognized the earmarks of a collector rather than a coin dealer, and I knew that I had received just what I had been looking for vainly in others, which I readily find in The Elder Rare Coin Book."

Note:—Any collector may obtain from us a copy of The Elder Rare Coin Book, convenient edition on thin paper for 45 cents, prepaid.
